OCTOBER—DECEMBER 2022

The visit of Bishop Levy and his wife, Mama Agnes reminded our parish of how small the worldwide Anglican Community is. Bishop Levy spoke about discipleship and how followers of Christ are lights for the world. He reminded us not to forget who we are and what God wants for us and of us.

The following week our lectionary reading in Luke focussed on the same theme. Both the Bishop's words and the gospel reading reminded me that while we are often familiar with high level discipleship, we forget about the transformative work of the Holy Spirit in our lives, which is a lifelong process resulting in a purposeful commitment to Jesus Christ.

As lights in the world, we can become dull as we get bogged down by work and life commitments; we forget to spiritually nourish ourselves with prayer and spending time with God, resulting in diminished discipleship. The Bishop told us that at the heart of Christian discipleship is the central request of Jesus to send disciples out into the world to proclaim the good news! What a relevant message as we face a difficult period for our country, Europe and the world.

It is a real pleasure to be working with the wonderful parishioners of KOTG over these past few weeks. The sun has maintained its presence for the most part and this has made it easier to get to know you all over tea and biscuits in the fresh air!

By way of introduction, I am married to Daniela, who has not been very visible yet as she works with the homeless in the Salvation Army and completes night shifts so is usually sleeping when I leave for Church. I have three children, Rebecca (24), Dylan (20) and Tara Rose (16). I trained as a social worker and completed a master's degree in palliative care with Trinity College and St Francis Hospice. My plan was to work with those who were nearing end of life ±however two things happened to thwart my plans:

1. While I was training, I was working as a drug and alcohol task force coordinator and was passionate about supporting communities overcome addiction. After a few years, there was a gap for an addiction manager in the HSE for Dublin North City and County and I was asked to fill that role on a temporary basis until the post was filled ±I remained in the post for 5 years! I cannot complain because I really loved this work and worked with so many dedicated staff.
2. When I was completing my placement in the hospice, it became very difficult to ignore the positivity and affirming nature of the patients who were coming to the end of their lives. It was a profound and positive experience that left me asking questions about life and what comes afterwards? I was always a church goer and I began to consider if there was not something else that I was being called to do? I engaged with my Rector and suddenly found myself on the theological discernment programme with Rev. Ted Woods. It was during this process that I first crossed paths with Alan, because I do remember the laughter shared whenever I met him (we were in separate classes because I was engaged in the part time course, while Alan went full time, but I knew I liked him from the start!

I was ordained and completed my deacon placement in St Mary's in Howth. I had changed jobs and was the national co ordinator for Bowel Screen so you could say I was a busy man.

I then worked in the Department of Health on a secondment. I was very interested in mental health and coordinated the youth mental health task force where we worked with young people to develop a plan for their mental health needs. It was amazing to hear all of their ideas, but also difficult to see that their mental health issues were increasing. I stayed in the Department to lead out on the new mental health policy 'Sharing the Vision'. This allowed me the opportunity and privilege to assist the Department shape the future of mental health delivery in Ireland for the next ten years.

While in the Department, I worked as a curate in Holmpatrick parish and supported the churches in Balbriggan, Skerries and Rush. This was good because I live in Balbriggan and it made sense to work in my own parish. Myself and my family worked to establish a youth group and engaged in summer camps (still ongoing and one camp coming up in August). Our youth group is diverse with over 15 nationalities, and we just love this work.

It is great to be a self supporting minister because I have the flexibility to maintain my work ±which I love, while at the same time, support churches when needed.

I am currently the head of primary care services for Dublin North City and County and this role is very rewarding. How we do Primary Care is changing and providing access to supports as early and as close to home as possible is a key driver.

I am here in KOTG for a time, and I am really enjoying getting to know you all. There is so much energy and commitment evident and I am happy to help in any way I can. I thank you for welcoming me with such open arms and look forward to getting to know you all more in the coming months.

May the God of hope fill you with joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

BRF Bible Study Notes

For many years Heather Jackson was the agent for the Bible Reading Fellowship (BRF) Lent and Advent books as well as the four monthly study note booklets. We are indebted to Heather for the cheerful, tireless and patient way she handled it.

While I can never replace her, since Easter I have been the new agent, but for the study booklets only. The Lent and Advent books can be easily ordered online. I will be happy to help where requested.

The study booklets ² Guidelines and New Daylight ² remain good value at €6. A variety of authors contribute the material from a wide spectrum of backgrounds. Many readers have found, and continue to find it, a great way to explore the Bible throughout the year.

For the year ahead, KOTG Parish have been asked to collect hygiene products for the Storehouse in Crinken e.g. deodorants, shower gel, shampoo, conditioner, toothbrushes and toothpaste. The Storehouse include a hygiene product in each care package every week, so these items are always needed and put to great use.

Donations can be left in the shopping trolley in the Parish Centre foyer, and the Parish Office also accepts donations.

Thanking you in advance for your continued support in 2022.

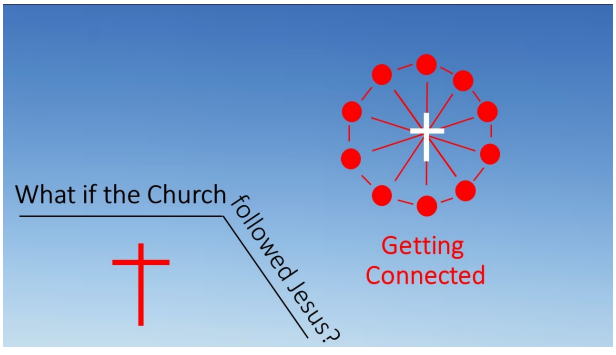
Autumn Services Theme – A message from the Ministry Team



This Autumn in our Sunday services, we are very excited to be exploring the question, 'What if the Church followed Jesus?'. On Sunday 25th September we are beginning this series by looking at the importance of 'Getting Connected' both for Jesus and His first followers and for us today. After all the challenges COVID has posed to community, we look forward to being reminded how crucial it is for us to 'Get Connected' both with God and each other. Looking forward to seeing you at one of our Sunday morning services (9:30 or 11 a.m.)

Hearty congratulations, Catherine, from your KOTG friends and fellow Parishioners!

It's an exciting time for us all here in KOTG.

Our Youth Group, Core, started back on the 17th with a lot of sunshine on our walk to Greystones from Bray for some ice cream and chats. We are really looking forward to the coming year and all that we can do and want to say a huge welcome to all the new First Years that have joined us this year!

Our 5th and 6th Class group, Maxpack also started back strong with us reconnecting with the new 6th class and we are eagerly looking forward to kicking off our time with 5th class this October.

We are also happy to say that our Sunday club started back last September! It's been a few years since we were able to meet and we were happy to see so many of the families reconnect with the group during our Sunday service!

Please pray for us as we kick off all our groups and teams for this academic year. We are eager to continue to build the Youth and Children Ministry teams that we rely on so we can best serve our young people and families.

As part of her gap year, Anna Shepherd has gone to The Netherlands to take part in a 6 month discipleship training school with YWAM (Youth With A Mission) this includes a mission outreach overseas. Anna shared more information with us on Sunday 4th September at the 11 a.m. service. She also hosted a Bake Sale after the service to raise funds for this.

Anna writes:

Just want to say a huge thank you for the support I received at the Bake Sale and at church! All the donations are much appreciated and have been a real encouragement as I prepare to go away.

Again, if you want to contact me and be added to the e-mail updates list my e-mail is below.

PRAISE THE LORD! AMEN.

Ruth Mann

We are so grateful to Ruth Mann and for her fellow members of the Planning Committee—Peter Rooke, Bruce Johnson and Heather Jackson—for their initiative, hard work and imagination which resulted in so successful a visit for Bishop Levi and his wife. The retiring collection on Sunday 21st August raised the very handsome sum of €1200 for the Diocese of Yei, and to go towards the Bishop's expenses while in Ireland.

A selection of photos from the visit is shown on the next 2 pages.

"I was young, but many times I could miss school because of school fees and requirements. My parents could not afford all I needed to be in school without being sent home for requirements or school fees balance. This would make me feel a bit bad, but I had nothing to do. One day God did something special and brought Abaana in my life. I was only in primary two, but I felt so special that I was given such an opportunity. My life immediately changed. I always received a school uniform, scholastics, and my fees were paid on time. This made me very determined to work for a bright future ... I graduated with a certificate in Early Childhood Development, something I never thought of achieving before sponsorship came in my life. I was able to start up my own nursery school in my community. This gives me so much joy because in this community, where I did not have hope, is the same community where I got hope; and today, still in the same community, I am giving others hope. I am so grateful to Abaana and I will forever be grateful."

Our Oldest Parishioner Teddy goes back to school!

At the invitation of Kill O'The Grange National School, on 27th June I visited the 4th Class ±accompanied by Teddy, my venerable tortoise! Teddy has been in our family for over 71 years. He is about 110 years old and remains in excellent health.

According to the teachers, the children were fascinated and overawed, and asked many thoughtful questions. The lady in one of the photos is Ellen Lanigan. I'm told that Teddy may expect future school visits in due course.

I would like to thank Sara Whitley (teacher), Hilary McBain (Principal), all the staff and above all the wonderful children for so memorable a morning!

James Darling
